

Donald Patriquin, composer

Donald Patriquin is known for his energetic and inspiring music and for bringing world music to the choral stage. His compositions have been described as “sophisticated and challenging, yet accessible to all audiences.” One of his specialties is world music – his J’entends le moulin continues to be sung the world over – but he has also written a wealth of original music in both sacred and secular genres.

His music is published mainly by EARTHSONGS in the USA, and by A TEMPO in Canada. The majority of it is available in both pdf and published hard copy formats. Please see his contact information on his website and at the end of this catalog. Please go to his website: DonaldPatriquin.com for a complete biography, reviews and YouTube videos.

THEMATIC INDEX FOR CHORAL WORKS EQUAL VOICES SA.

◄ Click on individual Title for more information, including listening clip and octavo sample.

Because of over lapping themes, a comprehensive thematic list could occupy many times the space of the entire catalog. Some possible categories are accounted for in the way the catalogue is organized. For example, a concentration of "Christmas music" and "World Music" for equal voices will be found under SA CHRISTMAS, and SA ARRANGEMENTS respectively.

Please contact the composer for specific themes if they are not readily found.
